THE LAST GERANIUM.

BY MRS. CATHERINE BYLES.

My lovely plant has left me;
How grieved I am 'tis gone;
My sweet Geranium is no more,
No more 'twill grace my home!

Last evening it was blooming,
But midnight's chill wind came,
And from my favorite plant,
Whose fate I now behold!

A faithful Monitor,
It strikes my conscious mind;
A moral in this loss,
I now before me find.

It says for sufferings prepare,
Sudden my life may end;
Then I quit each earthly care,
And every tender friend.

May I rest on Jesus now,
Who my best good has given,
May I join the saints above,
And praise my God in Heaven.

the blacking, and finding it good, commenced the manufacture and sale of it, and realized the fortune he now possesses; but we believe no one can say that he ever deceived or wronged a human being; and his charities, particularly the almshouses near Edgeware, will make him for ages to come, what he certainly always has been—a shining character, and a lesson to this and future generations of what industry can do in this wealthy and happy country, from the smallest beginnings.”

BLANK BOOKS.—of the best manufacture, and in every variety, constantly for sale at the lowest prices, in the one day a soldier entered his shop, and stated that he had just landed from an expedition, and had a long march before him, to reach his regiment—that his money was gone, and nothing but sickness, fatigue and punishment awaited him, unless he could get a lift on a coach. The worthy barber presented him with a guinea, when the grateful soldier exclaimed, "God bless you, sir—how can I ever repay this? I have nothing in this world—except," pulling a dirty piece of paper out of his pocket, "a recipe for blacking—it is the best ever was seen—many a half-guinea have I had for it from the officers, and many bottles have I sold: you have been able to get something for it to repay this you have given to the poor soldier—your kindness I never can either repay or forget." Mr Day, who was a shrewd man, inquired into the truth of the story, tried

FROM 1000 TO 10,000 DOLLARS REWARD! Whereas, during the eighteen months practice of the subscriber, Dr. Samuel Thompson, at his Infirmary for healing the sick in Harvard street in Boston, under the patronage of Doct Samuel Thompson, the Father of said system—out of the twenty years' acquaintance he has had with the same, he has had several hundred cases of disease under his care, of that character with which mankind are generally afflicted—the efficacy of the botanical remedies of Doct Samuel Thompson (not Benja. Thompson of Concord, N. H. or Jesse Thompson of Mt. Vernon Indiana.) over those of any other known medical system, whether the same be of ancient or modern date, is so apparent from a body of evidence that can be adduced from the progress and extent of this system, which is fast spreading over the United States; which facts have constrained many of the leading members of the Faculty, among whom are the respectable and scientific Doctors Waterhouse and Legally, to throw off the trammels of prejudice, and bear honorable testimony in favor of this practice.

NOW, THEREFORE, the subscriber hereby proposes and offers to the government of the Massachusetts General Hospital, or to any other medical institution, establishing in Massachusetts, under the superintendence of the most popular and skillful physicians, to take one half of any number of patients that may apply for admission in said hospital, and remove the same to his Infirmary; and he will pledge himself under a formal contract to give ONE TO TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS in effect more cures in less than half the time that the faculty may consume on the other portion left in the hospital.

Should this offer be accepted, the undersigned will give satisfactory security to pay the aforesaid sum or sums of money in case he incurs the forfeiture, and shall expect the faculty to do the same.

It will be observed that the orthography in the names of the individuals is different, there being a p in this name, which is omitted in that of Dr Samuel Thompson, the original inventor and exclusive proprietor, and Father of the System. It is not named to preclude the public eye, any name—but only in justice to the Father of the Thompsonian system of medical practice. Benjamin and Jesse Thompson are merely agents of Dr Samuel Thompson—the same as myself. 3w3m—1f

NOTICE.—The Democratic citizens of District No. 1, (Boston) friendly to the National Administration, are requested to assemble at the Old Common Council Room, Court Square, on TUESDAY EVENING, March 24, at half past 7 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of electing, in compliance with the recommendation of the Legislative Convention, a Delegate to the National Convention, to be held at Baltimore in May next.

CHAS. HENSHAW, Chairman C. C.
Boston, March 17, 1835.

Northampton Redeemed!—We are constantly receiving the most cheering intelligence from all sections of the State. The true friends of Democracy are at work in every portion of the Commonwealth for the promotion of the cause of the People. They are resolved that nothing shall divert them from the great task they are determined to accomplish—THE REFORMATION OF THE POLITICAL GOVERNMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS. To this end will all the labors of the real friends to the cause be directed—TO INCREASE AND STRENGTHEN THE PARTY, and not to weaken it by indulging in local and personal bickerings. To foment difficulties may subvert the interests of the enemies of Democracy, and those who pursue this course will be viewed and treated as such.—Let us go on goodnaturedly, harmoniously, perseveringly.

If our opponents choose to wrangle and snarl, let them indulge their disposition, while the united and energetic action of the Democracy of the State shall achieve the triumph it has so long contended for. The election of Mr. BANCROFT, one of the ablest Republicans in New England, will be highly gratifying to the friends of liberal principles in every quarter—his present success is but the precursor of his elevation to a far more exalted and influential station. The following letter we received yesterday:—

To the Editor of the Boston Morning Post:

Northampton, March 16, 1835.

Sir—Our election for town officers to-day has resulted in a Democratic triumph.

For Moderator we put George Bancroft against Hon. Lewis Strong. On the first ballot each had 102 votes—the second vote much larger—Bancroft 3 majority.

For Town Clerk, the Democratic candidate, Isaac Clark, had fifteen majority on the second trial.

For Selectmen 406 votes were cast—the contest was for the three first on each ticket, and the Democratic ticket succeeded by an average majority of about 25. The aristocracy put in nomination as Chairman of the Selectmen, the Hon. E. Williams, of the Senate.—It headed the names with the imposing words, Whig Ticket.

The Hon. Lewis Strong, and the Hon. E. Williams, are the most popular whigs in the town or county; both were fairly beat to-day, and Northampton is redeemed. Whigery here is dead.

Connecticut.—The approaching election in this State will be very warmly contested, and the prospect of success for the Democratic party looks very flattering. Great exertions will be made on both sides, but our friends seem to be preparing for the work with great skill and industry. We have before us a letter from one of the leading men in the State, whose facilities for obtaining correct information are very great, and upon whose judgment we place implicit reliance, from which we make the following extract:—

"You ask my opinion of the result of our approaching election. I have a strong belief we shall succeed—we certainly shall, unless our friends in Fairfield and New Haven counties are entirely mistaken as to their counties. In the former, they talk of a majority of one thousand, but if we get half that, we shall be safe.—According to an estimate, which I regard as a very safe one, the Democratic majorities will be 13 or 1400, and the Whig majorities 900 or 1000. I think the result will be more favorable—but this depends mainly on the number of the Whig votes, as we can calculate on our own votes much better than theirs. In the above estimate, I have supposed that they will bring to the contest the whole strength they had a year ago, except what it has been diminished by Republicans, who had been deceived, withdrawing from them."

Salem Election.—The Salem Advertiser, in commenting upon the late election in that town, says—

"The spontaneous expression of the people indicated a desire to elect Deacon JOHN STONE [the owner of the Giles Distillery] to the board of Selectmen. His name was inserted, together with those of four of the last year's board—and the ticket thus nominated by acclamation, was elected by an overpowering majority.—In regard to Selectmen, the contest was principally between Deacon Stone and Mr. Chamberlain, (who is said to be one of the proprietors of the Landmark,) and we discover that out of 553 votes polled, Deacon Stone received 575. Leaving the whole number of votes given against him but 278. As there were scattering votes in which Mr. Chamberlain's name was omitted, it is not probable that his vote exceeded 250—thus giving Mr. Stone a majority of 325! But this is not all. Every exertion was made by the Landmark interest to bring out their whole force—while the friends of liberal principles made little or no exertion and acted without organization."

The Town Elections in New York have resulted most gloriously for the cause of Democracy. The "Infected District" is becoming purified. At the recent town election in Lockport, Niagara county, the republican supervisor was elected by 75 majority, and nearly the entire Republican ticket elected. The Federal majority in this town at the fall election was 33.

The Republican ticket has succeeded in the large town of Watertown, Jefferson county, after a spirited contest, by a majority of 83 votes. The Republican majority last fall was 46.

Workmen.—There are two kinds of politicians under this cognomen, one the real laborious workman, who is honestly desirous of so modifying and modelling our laws as to secure to all equal rights, and ample protection. This is a laudable object, which all true Democrats will aid, because, in fact, it is the creed of the Democratic party. There is another class of workmen, so called, consisting of professional gentlemen—literally professional gentlemen—who never did a day's work in their lives, who are incompetent even to get a livelihood in the professions they have studied, and so they become professional workmen—noisy demagogues—vastly democratic professionally. These may be denominated the lazy workmen.

Imprisonment for Debt.—Yesterday, in the Senate of Massachusetts, the member from Nantucket, (Hon. Mr. Jenks) as chairman of the special committee, to whom was referred the bill from the House, reviving in part the law in relation to jail limits, (the operation of which is to restore imprisonment for debt in certain cases) made a voluminous, able, and humane report on this subject. The report viewed the principles of such a bill as proof of a retrograde march into the region of darkness, and adverse to the kind sympathies of the age it was our happiness to live in—that misfortune should not be distorted into crime, and made punishable, without judge or jury, by imprisonment in "Grange d'angoisses, or iron cages"—and that incarceration of free-born American citizens, was indicative of an iron age. The report recommends a non-concurrence on the part of the Senate with the House of Representatives, in the passage of the bill. The report was ordered to be printed.

The Purloined Letter.—It is with reluctance that Capt. Budd feels obliged to notice Samuel Etheridge again in a public manner, but in justice to himself he is bound to declare that he never made the declaration attributed to him by Etheridge, in the Atlas of the 18th inst., viz: "Go look at the books—go and see. They (meaning the clerks) will show you the books." This contradiction may appear superfluous after the publication of the certificates which appeared on Tuesday, in the Post and Atlas, proving Etheridge's violation of truth, among the strongest of which was that of Etheridge's brother, yet, Capt. Budd is unwilling to suffer an assertion conveying the most distant insinuation that he ever gave, directly or indirectly, Etheridge permission to examine the books referred to, to pass uncontradicted.

Old Ironsides in New York.—Visit to the Theatre, &c.—The Times, in speaking of the arrival of the Constitution in that city, makes the following remarks:—

"The brief stay which only was allowed the Commodore to make, by his duty and his instructions, and the incessant labors of the officers and crew, have of necessity prevented that exercise of hospitality and interchange of courtesies, which would otherwise have infallibly taken place, and it was only on Saturday night that the preparations were so far completed as to enable the Commodore to permit the acceptance, by the officers, of an invitation to attend the Bowery Theatre. The house was crowded to the very roof, by an audience who came exclusively to gratify themselves by seeing their gallant visitors, and to manifest to them how different were their feelings from those exhibited in another city. The Courier and Enquirer of that morning had endeavored to mar the harmony of the occasion, but its efforts were abortive, and indeed if any corresponding attempt had been made, it would have been promptly and effectively suppressed. But none was made, and the admirers of the ship, and her gallant commander and officers, were not molested. The latter were very cordially received as they came in, in several groups, and when the commodore, about eight o'clock, made his appearance in the centre box, that had been set apart for him, the audience rose, and greeted him with three times three of the heartiest cheers that ever came from human lips. When he retired, at the end of the first act, he was again complimented, and the orchestra, in obedience to the general call, played the popular air—"Hail to the Chief."—A crowd of some two or three thousand, attended by a band of music, had assembled in front of the house, and cheered the Commodore and the ship, and in half an hour after they separated, a procession, with banners and music, from the Eleventh Ward, met him as he was leaving the house, and after a brief address from their deputation to him, they also cheered him enthusiastically.

We mention these things with pleasure, because accidental and spontaneous as they were, they manifest feelings which contrast most advantageously with those exhibited in Boston, and which are very creditable to our city, and especially to those of our citizens whose political views coincide with those prevalent in Boston."

The Bankites of Missouri are in a terrible fever because the people of that Democratic State will not allow them a Bank. The Booneville Herald in commenting upon the forlorn condition of the citizens without a Bank, says:—

"The U. States Bank will not only withdraw what paper money she has in circulation, but will also necessarily, in the collection of her debts, take from us what little gold and silver we have. We will then, to use the language of a (Whig) Missouri Legislator, 'be greased and swallowed' by other State Banks. What will we be then? 'Missouri puked.'"

Nuncle Lang, of the New York Gazette, copies the letter purporting to be Com. Elliott's, which was published in the Atlas on Saturday, together with the comments of that paper, and calls the whole article a bijou. He had not then seen Capt. Budd's statement which appeared in the Post and Atlas on Tuesday—the latter, Nuncle Lang will find, robs the former of what he would term its "brilliance."

Lt. Governor Armstrong (Samuel) has declined being a candidate for re-election to his present office. How would Deacon Moses Grant do for the Whigs? He is a very vigilant city officer and a popular man;—we guess he'd get a large vote. Try him, Major.

The Democrats are wide awake in Charlestown—the Bunkerhill boys will not be found napping at the next election. There is no mawkish, false pretension about them—they are the real thing—genuine, Jeffersonian Democrats.

The splendid silver trumpet presented last evening by the citizens of Chelsea to J. L. Barber, Foreman of Engine No 15, may be seen at S. G. B. Eaton's, No 78 Washington street.

The Virginia Legislature was to adjourn on Saturday last, after a session of fifteen weeks.

"Gush," we shall print to-morrow.

Franking Privilege.—We learn from an authentic source our following facts:—This morning there was sent from the post office a large bag, containing packages marked "Public Documents," addressed to Gideon Tomlinson, Fairfield, Conn., U. S. Senator, which weighed ninety pounds! The day before a bag full of "documents," and addressed to the same person, was sent through the post office, weighing about forty-five pounds! From the appearance of these packages it is supposed they are Post Office Reports, which the honorable Senator is about to distribute through Connecticut previous to the spring election, in order to expose Post Office corruptions!—N. Y. Eve. Post of Friday.

In addition to the above, another bag containing packages marked "Public Documents," also addressed to the above named Gideon Tomlinson, and weighing forty-five pounds, was this morning forwarded to its place of destination.—N. Y. Times of Saturday.

POLICE COURT.

Francis Robbins, a French Canadian, though for the convenience of thing, now sailing under an English title, was charged with breaking open the trunk of Maurice W. Pigot, and stealing therefrom a coat, vest, and pair of steel-buckle pumps, amounting altogether to $21 in value. For three weeks, Robbins had been a fellow lodger with Pigot, till Friday night last, when he took French leave of his old quarters, and made himself at home in a cellar, where were kept accommodations for transient boarders. Coming in with his bundle, he represented himself to be a pedestrian from Troy, with an empty bread-basket, and an exhausted treasury, which he partly replenished by selling the spick-and-span pumps, worth $1.25, for 37 cents. He looks prison-rusted, and is probably 40 years of age, yet, in the tone of a snivelling boy, he addressed his honor with—"Me lor zhudge shall show me all de favor what is right to a stranger parsonne, what have got no friends nor de parent to speak for him not nothing." Me lor zhudge responded to this melting appeal, by saying—"Let the defendant recognize in $242, to appear at the Municipal Court." Committed for want of "de parent" of all evil—de monesesh.

Walking Intelligence Office.—John W. Clark, an elderly man, was charged with stealing from a dwelling house, a small box, containing two breast pins, a $5 bill, and one of Benton's yellow drops, "the sovereign'st thing on earth" for nearly "all the ills that flesh is heir to." Clark has been in the habit of calling at houses, to inquire of the inmates whether they wanted to hire rooms; but the idea of carrying round rooms to let did not take very well, and he met with but small encouragement. On Monday, the wife of the complainant, while at work up stairs, heard some one enter her parlor below, and going to the head of the stairs, saw Clark coming out of the parlor, and asked him what he wanted; he replied, that he "came to see if there was any one there that wanted a house, or a situation," and then slipped out at the front door as silent as an oyster. The lady was too much alarmed to follow him, but ascertained that her box, which had been in the parlor 10 minutes before, was missing. No part of the stolen property was found on Clark, but he was ordered to recognize in the sum of $224, and committed in default thereof.

An elderly woman was complained against as a common drunkard, and the principal witnesses against her were her two daughters—respectable looking young ladies—and from the mellifluous baptismal perfumes to their surnames, which appear to have been borrowed from some of the popular romances of the early part of the present century, it may be presumed that the mother herself in other days was something of a lady, and patronised a circulating library. Two months in the house of correction, with a respite of two hours, to allow her to clear the cape, and join her husband in Portsmouth, N. H.

St Patrick's Day.—Notwithstanding that the anniversary of the patron Saint of Ireland was very generally celebrated on Tuesday, such was the regularity and moderation of the jubilants, that not a single complaint, growing out of the festivities, was entered at the Police Court.

The lawyers' patron.—St. Evona, a lawyer of Britain, went to Rome to entreat the Pope to give the lawyers of that country a patron, to which he replied that he knew of no saint but what was disposed of to other professions. At this Evona was very sad, and earnestly begged the Pope to think of them. At last his Holiness proposed to St. Evona that he should go round the church of San Giovanni di Laterana blindfold, and after he should have said a certain number of Ave Marias, that the first saint he should lay hold of should be his patron. This the good old lawyer willingly undertook, and at the end of his Ave Marias stopped at St. Michael's altar, where he laid hold of the devil, under St. Michael's feet, and cried out, "this is our saint—let him be our patron." Being unblinded, and seeing what patron he had chosen, he went to his lodgings so dejected that, after a few months, he died. His reputation for honesty was, however, so great, that a witty Frenchman wrote upon his tomb at Rome—"St. Evona, un Breton avocat non larron helleluiah."

Kentucky.—A meeting of the Democratic members of both branches of the Legislature was held at the capitol in Frankfort on the 17th ult. for the purpose of recommending to the Democratic Republicans of the Union, a designated time and place of holding a National Convention, for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. A committee was appointed to report to a subsequent meeting, which was held on the 23d. A resolution was then reported and adopted, for appointing as Delegates to attend the National Convention, five citizens on behalf of the State at large, and two from each of the Congressional Districts—and they were accordingly appointed. Also a resolution expressing it as the opinion of the meeting, that Martin Van Buren and Richard M. Johnson are the choice of the Democratic party of Kentucky. And a Central Corresponding Committee was also appointed.

The Fortifications at Newport, R. I. are in such a state of forwardness, that 300 heavy cannon might be immediately mounted. And yet, not a single cannon is mounted, nor is likely to be till next year, unless the new Congress shall be called together in an extra session, to do the work neglected by the last! The same remarks are essentially applicable to the Forts at the Narrows, below this city; and we believe we may say, to the new fortifications generally throughout the country. Wherever the responsibility lies, of defeating the Fortification Bill, it is a very heavy one. In case of a sudden war, the country would feel it to be so.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

Fire and loss of life.—Yesterday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, a fire broke out in a large three story wooden building in Charlestown, (two doors from the toll house of Charles River Bridge) which was nearly destroyed. The house was occupied by eight families, mostly Irish. The fire commenced in a room occupied by Mrs. Shaffer, a widow, aged about 60, (an American) who was found in a state of insensibility by the firemen. They attempted to rescue her, but the flames raged so violently that they were prevented, and she perished. The house was owned by the widows Blanchard and Goodwin, of Charlestown; one of them had an insurance of $1000 on the building. Had the fire occurred in the night many other lives would probably have been lost.—Transcript.

Melancholy Death.—Mr W. C. Farran, of St Louis, was killed on the 24th ult. by the horse he was riding becoming unmanageable, and carrying him with such great force against a tree as to kill him almost instantly. He belonged to the U. S. Navy.

Mr George Cooper, a law student of Toronto, U. C., who stated before his death to those who found him wounded, that he had been engaged in a duel, has been pronounced by a coroner's jury guilty of suicide.

BY THE STEAMBOAT MAIL.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the packet ship Virginian, Captain Harris, we have English newspapers, Prices Currents, and Shipping Lists, and letters to February 11th.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

Parliament was to be opened by the King in person on the 19th of February.

Money was abundant in England, and all branches of trade prosperous.

Lord Brougham and his suite arrived at his residence, in Berkley square, on Thursday evening, from his three months tour on the continent.

Correspondence of the Morning Chronicle.
Paris, Feb. 7.—There cannot be the least doubt now that the American indemnity will be voted by the Chamber, since the members of the Commission elected on Thursday to report on the question are unanimously in its favor. The vote of the United States' Senate, which subsequently arrived, must remove most of the objections raised by the hurt pride of the French against the payment of the claims. Hence, it is probable that the Treaty will pass without any paragraph throwing blame on the Ministry, such as M. Passy proposed, and for which proposal M. Passy was not chosen on the Commission. It should, however, be remarked that many members of opposition supported Ministers, or at least insisted on the necessity of fully satisfying the United States. Amongst these were not only Georges Lafayette, but De Sale, De Tracy, and others. M. Realier Dumas, a member of the Tiers Parti, and M. Dellessert, who in 1831, had declared that only thirteen millions were due instead of twenty-five, were found on the present occasion supporting the Ministerial view of the question. With these, moreover, went all the deputies of the great ports, Bordeaux, Nantes, Havre, who, though in general anti-Ministerial, were nevertheless obliged, from position, to avoid all possibility of a war with America. Two members for the Gironde, Ducos and Dufaue, are of the Commission.

London, Feb. 9.—Our news from Madrid is to the 29th ult., at which time a general alarm existed lest a revolution should break out, and fresh troops are ordered into the capital from Estremadura. The greatest vigilance is exerted on the part of the government—the post office is strongly guarded, and large patrols circulate through the streets at night. In the Procueros, on the 27th, General Quesada attacked Llauder in a violent speech, recommending that he should be watched.—The ex-minister had left Madrid on his way to Barcelona, where it was supposed he was to resume the Captain-Generalship of Catalonia, but the impolicy of entrusting him with such a command has been so strongly urged on the ministers, that we do not think he will be allowed to retain the post. It was reported, indeed, that he had been actually recalled. The promises to the mutinous regiment of Aragon have been broken—Cardero and others were ordered to the island of Majorca, but suspecting evil designs against them, they made their escape. The non-commissioned officers were dismissed from the service, the men drafted into other corps, and the regiment disbanded.

MARKETS.
Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.
Liverpool, Feb. 6.—The morning up shows the business to be even greater than had been reckoned, including the public sale of this day, which was all eagerly bought up at high prices, this week's work will amount to 13,826 bags, of which 5000 American, 500 Brazils, 3000 Caracenas, and 2700 Surats, have been taken on speculation, and 300 Surats for export. We raise our quotations $\frac{1}{2}$ per lb all round, again remarking that good quality of American is every day becoming difficult to purchase.

Liverpool, Feb. 7.—Fresh sweet Flour goes off in small parcels for export at 25s per bbl, sour 17s 4d. Turpentine steady at 13s per cwt for good quality. 800 bbls Carolina Tur sold a few days since at 13s per bbl. Flax seed in fair demand and 500 casks of good new have sold this week at 85s per cask. Cloverseed with that of last year. Tea—There has been a moderate steady demand, 320 bbls of Montreal potash sold 34s 6d at 35s and 50s; pearls at 35s a 30s.

Liverpool, Feb. 10.—The demand for Cotton has not been so good the last two days and prices are a shade lower. A parcel of good Turpentine sold yesterday at the reduced price of 12s 9d.

In Manchester to-day (market day) the business in goods and yarns has been very great and at advanced prices. The sales to-day are 3000 bags.

Money is very abundant, and we fear more so than is for the permanent good of trade. Bubble speculations are beginning to show themselves again on the London Exchange.
London, Feb. 10.—Sugar.—The transactions are at very stiff prices—1200 boxes of good strong yellow Havana have been sold at 30s, and for the white descriptions an advance of 1s to 2s is asked—Brazils continue scarce and in good demand, small lot of good white Pernambos brought 33s, and for brown sorts 32s is asked. The stock of Java is 13,976 bbs, against 34,159 boxes last year, and of Brazil only 1403 chests against 14,741 chests. Coffee.—The holders of Foreign are reluctant sellers excepting at full prices, and they supply the market very sparingly—the stock shows an increase of 500 tons compared with that of last year. Tea—There has been a very extensive demand, 320 bbls for Bohemia and Twankays, mostly for speculation, and prices of all kinds have advanced. Cloves.—The prices of Bourbon are $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1d pr lb higher. Mace—Good fair seconds 4s 10d to 4s 11d. Indigo—in prices there is no alteration, but the demand has been extremely limited. Chequered.—The holders are at 6s 6d to 10s for blacks, silvers 8s 9d to 9s, and foxys 7s 10d to 8s 2d, are readily obtained. Lac Dye.—A few chests of D T have been taken for exportation at 2s 4d. Oil—Lined remains at 41s 6d. Olive is without alteration. Turpentine—no rough for sale. Quicksilver.—The holders are not so firm as they were—3s 3d to 3s 4d has been accepted for some small quantities. Shellac—Prices as last. Wool.—The public sale which commenced on the 28th January, concluded last Wednesday, and throughout was numerously attended by buyers from the manufacturing districts—some of the finest fleeces of Van Dieman's Land and New South Wales sold as high as 3s 1d to 3s 14d.

Tobacco.—For Virginia there has been a good demand by the trade at 44d to 64d per lb. Kentucky Leaf has been in fair request for the Mediterranean at 34d to 3d per lb. Cassia lignea.—At public sale 150 chests were taken in at 6s for middling quality; 1000 chests were offered, and was all bought at 41s 6d to 65, for mid quality. Pepper.—Unfixed are $\frac{1}{2}$ lower—34s has been paid for sifted Malabar. Pimento—Prices have declined $\frac{1}{2}$ d; at public sale 111 bags went at 54s to 54s for ordinary to middling quality. Nutmegs—Home consumers are 6d lower. Rice, few sales.

American Funds.—New York 5 per cent 1845, 95 $\frac{1}{2}$; Penn. do. 1838, 103 $\frac{1}{2}$; Ohio 6 per cent 1850, 113; Mississippi do 1841, 103 $\frac{1}{2}$; Alabama 5 per cent 1853, 96 $\frac{1}{2}$.
U. S. Bank Shares £21 17s 6d; £22. Foreign gold in bars £3 17s 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ d; new Doubloons £3 18s; new Dollars, 41 $\frac{1}{2}$ d; with pillars 41 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

Seizure of American Slaves in Bermuda.—The brig Enterprise, Smith, from Washington for Charleston, with a cargo of 78 slaves on board, put into Bermuda on the 20th ult. in distress. On the following day, at the instance of the "Friendly Society" of colored people of Bermuda, a writ of Habeas Corpus was served upon all the slaves, commanding them to be brought before the Chief Justice and answer for themselves whether they would proceed with the vessel to her destined port and continue slaves, or remain at Bermuda and be free. The whole of the slaves, save a woman and five children, by name Ridgely, declared themselves more desirous of remaining, and being free, than proceeding in the vessel, and they were accordingly set at liberty by the Court. A subscription of $70 was then taken up on the spot, for their present emergencies.

From Para.—The schr. Orin, arrived at New York from Para, via Barbadoes, has on board the Vice President and three officers of the customs of Para. She was chartered by the authorities to carry despatches to Barbadoes. Affairs were in an unsettled state at Para, and farther insurrections apprehended.

During Thursday and Friday there arrived at the port of New York 10 ships, 2 barks, 17 brigs, 49 schooners, and several sloops and lighters. Of the whole number, 23 were from foreign ports.

The amount of ardent spirits imported into Lower Canada from the sea, in 1831, was 808,712 gallons; in 1832, 823,851; in 1833, 975,466. Of wine in 1831, 337,932 gallons; in 1832, 432,432; in 1833, 664,020.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.

In Senate, March 18.—Mr Tufts, from the special joint Committee on the subject of the Warren Bridge submitted a detailed report thereon, accompanied with a resolve authorizing the Lt. Governor to take a deed of Charles River Bridge, which was read, the resolve ordered to a second reading, and 3000 copies of the report and resolve ordered to be printed. Bills to incorporate the Mechanic's Wharf Company in New Bedford, and to incorporate the American Copper Co., were severally ordered to a second reading. Mr Jenks, from the Select Committee to whom was committed the bill from the House "in addition to an act enlarging the limits of the several Jail yards in this Commonwealth," submitted a detailed report thereon, concluding with the declaration that such bill ought not to pass, and said report and bill were ordered to be printed.

In the House, sundry petitions presented on various subjects, and severally referred. Resolve reported on petition of Nancy George. Bill concerning paupers, as amended, was ordered to be printed. Bill reported in addition to an act defining the liabilities of sureties in the Bonds of Guardians, &c.—passed to second reading. On motion of Mr Roberts of Salem, the petition of Mercy Stone, was taken from the table, and the House by a unanimous vote, granted thereon leave to withdraw. Order of notice reported on petition of Jona. Farley. Bill and Resolves reported on the subject of the introduction of foreign paupers into this Commonwealth—read and ordered to be printed. The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Resolve on the subject of amending the Constitution, and having resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr Ashmun of Springfield, in the chair—a discussion was commenced and continued without any definite result till half past one o'clock, when, on motion, the committee rose, reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again. Adj.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS.

Passed at a Convention holden in Newton, on Wednesday, the eleventh of March, 1835.

WHEREAS, Believing that a number of our present Town Officers were declared elected by the presiding officer, at our last election, without receiving a majority of all the votes cast, and contrary to the expressed will of all those who maintain the purity of our elections, to express their disapprobation of an act directly subversive of the first principles of elective governments, and having a tendency to undermine the very foundation of our liberty; and—

WHEREAS, Certain individuals over zealous in the cause of Temperance, have asserted that a meeting holden in this town, on the Saturday previous to our last election, for the purpose of nominating Town Officers, was a convention for the promotion of intemperance, it has become not only proper, but necessary to repel this slanderous imputation, by making public the principles of those composing this convention, and their opinions on the various questions, which at present so unhappily agitate the town. Therefore—

Resolved, That this Convention entertain a high sense of the improved moral condition of our country, effected through the instrumentality of Temperance Societies, and the diffusion of knowledge respecting the injurious effects of ardent spirits.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the efforts now making for the suppression of Intemperance, so far as they are conducted without resorting to persecution, or interfering with the private or public rights of individuals.

Resolved, That we view with indignation and contempt, the conduct of those who are attempting to render the cause of Temperance subversive to public purposes, and conceive it our duty to oppose it, whenever it is made an engine of political power, a weapon of private malice, or a ladder of personal ambition.

Resolved, That we consider the declared election of four of our Board of Selectmen to be illegal and void, inasmuch as they did not receive a majority of all the votes cast, and a dangerous precedent to be sanctioned by the town.

Resolved, That the vote passed at our last Town Meeting, on the fourth of March, by the voters had retired, instructing the Selectmen respecting Licenses, was entirely out of order, and an insolent assumption of power on the part of the few.

Resolved, That to deprive the inn-holders in this town of their Licenses, while those in the neighboring towns continue to be licensed, would be an unwarrantable interference in private rights and an important source of damage to the town, without in any manner benefitting the cause of temperance.

Resolved, That we sincerely commiserate the unfortunate condition of those, who fearful of meeting us either in debate or at the ballot box, are obliged to resort to the pitiful expedients of defaming our character, and misrepresenting our motives, to retard the cause of freedom and common sense.

Resolved, That the above Resolutions be signed by the Moderator and Secretary, and printed.

HENRY STARR, Secretary. NATH'L WALES, Moderator.

A fire occurred at Quebec on the 5th March. It first broke out in a small stable between two houses belonging to Louis Masse, Esq. in St. John and Ste. Angel streets, Upper Town. It soon spread to both houses—the one in St. John street being a large three story stone house, occupied by Mr. Peter Holt, as a grocery store; the one in the rear, also of stone and two stories high, being occupied by Mr. Andrews, blacksmith, and Mr. Spencer, messenger in the General Post Office. Both houses were completely consumed, with a good deal of their contents. This is the third time this property has been destroyed by fire, and about six weeks ago, a fire in the front house was fortunately suppressed.—Star.

The Legislature of New Jersey have passed a law fixing the ton at 2000 lbs.

THE DEMOCRATS OF CAMBRIDGEPORT are requested to meet at Marcy's Tavern, on the 26th inst, to consider the expediency of organising the Party for the ensuing year.
